

Press Release

SGLS Paints Faces

Fine arts meet musical arts with an event by the Southern Great Lakes Symphony. On Sunday, September 17th starting at 5:00 at Sharkey's Tavern (25215 West River Road, Grosse Ile) the SGLS will present the art of many prominent Downriver artists in a medium new to them, but familiar to the musicians of the SGLS. The artists have decorated the faces of music stands and these stands will be available for viewing and auction. Artist participating in the event include: Joe Scott, Leo Kuschel, Rita Gazdak, Joan Hoffman, Linda Ignagni, Daniel Ignagni, Gary Caperton, Betty Gaither, David Grose, Marilyn Bomarito, Edith Moose, Linda Kostoff, Bernice Rynearson, Carol Reid, Irene Will, Terry Moran, Charlotte McDonnell, Donna Hinson

This fundraiser for the SGLS will also highlight the artistry of Downriver artist-Joe Scott, who has been involved with the SGLS for over 20 years. Joe has contributed his talents to the orchestra in the form of logos, covers and a wealth of other graphics.

The event entitled "Stand for Music" is the first event in the orchestra's 2006-2007 season. Tickets for the "Stand for Music" Event are $35 and include Hors d'oeuvres, refreshment, music by the SGLS chamber group and lots of fun. A special display honoring Joe Scott's art will also be on hand.

Subscription information for the rest of the year is available on the orchestra's website www.sgls.org or by calling the SGLS office at (734) 692-6225.

The SGLS, now celebrating its 52nd season, is presenting 10 concerts for the 2006-2007 season: 4 Classic Concerts and 4 Casual Concerts, plus 2 special events. All concerts are open to the public with a special invitation to families with children. Our next concert is October 14 at Allen Park Presbyterian Church entitled Ah....Mozart! See you there!

Southern Great Lakes Symphony-Your Downriver Orchestra!

www.sgls.org

#